Top Prices Paid For...

- Old American correspondences, including business, military or personal letter lots.
- Especially interested in American missionary, explorer, seafaring, travel letters and correspondences.
- Any interesting or unusual American letters, diaries, manuscript journals, log books, scrapbooks, photograph albums, etc.
- Postcards (Pre-1940 Worldwide)
- Postal history covers and stampless covers (postmarked envelopes and pre-stamp letters)
- We also buy paper Americana including documents, maps, prints, pamphlets and brochures, engravings, broadsides, financial paper, travel brochures, timetables, stock certificates, bonds, pre-1865 newspapers, trade cards, illustrated letterheads, world's fair and exposition memorabilia.

Also: Valentines, Civil War items, Spanish-American War, World War I and World War II, interesting photographs, bank checks (illustrated or with revenue stamps), calendars, railroad passes and much, much more!

While we can't buy everything, if you are in doubt, call, write or e-mail us for an immediate response. We are always available and generally will call back within the same day, no matter where we might be.

Selling To Us...

NATIONAL MARKETS

We have an extensive network of collectors, dealers and institutional customers throughout the country that enables us to evaluate your material properly from a broad market viewpoint.

KNOWLEDGE

We have been buying and selling Americana for the past 20 years. In addition, we have an outstanding library of hundreds of reference books, monographs and publications providing us with extensive background information to assure that your property will be evaluated properly. My past experience as a leading museum curator provides an extensive historical information network.

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED

If for any reason you decide to reject our offer, there is no quibbling, no larger counter offers, no lengthy discussions and no nonsense. We always attempt to give the best offer—out front, the first time!

INSURANCE

We are fully insured by Lloyd's of London for material in transit and on our premises.

REFERENCES

We are longtime members in good standing of the Manuscript Society and the Ephemera Society, the premier collector/dealer organizations in our field.

HOW TO SELL TO US

We sincerely try to make doing business with us Quick and Easy. If you choose to send us material, please call, write or e-mail us first. Please pack everything very carefully in a strong envelope or carton and be sure to include your name and address as well as a daytime and evening phone number. Please ship by U.S. Postal Service. If you are shipping items under $1,000 in value, ship via Priority Insured. If the estimated value of your material is more than $1,000, please call for shipping instructions.

WE LOVE ATTIC AND ESTATE LOTS!

We will always travel within a 250-mile radius to evaluate large attic and estate lots. Please contact us for an appointment. We look forward to hearing from you and promise to do our best to please!
